I have done my homework and am ready. My business style is optimistic, inclusive and forward thinking. My recent and committed service to SDAR has prepared me to do a good job in this role. I am grateful for your support and offer you my very best in return. It will take more than luck for our association to flourish in the coming years... I have done the hard work to be more than lucky.

I am passionate about protecting property rights, our profession, and our Association. I have twice served as SDAR Director, former C.A.R. Director, working member of Budget and Finance, Real Estate Trustees, Investment Management Trustees, and Bylaws committees - with Chair and Vice-Chair experience. I have worked on numerous task forces and other committees. My broad experience makes a difference! I ask for your vote to further your voice and serve you within our association.
